A Namco Bandai approved Fan Film

STORY

Klonoa, a Dream Traveler, finds that he again has drifted into another dream world. The dream, generally termed a phantomile is unfamiliar to him. Upon investigating a nearby inn Klonoa discovers the phantomile is in peril. He quickly learns that the world had been awaiting his arrival for too long. Klonoa is introduced to a local known as a Seer who is well versed in knowledge about ancient history. Without much warning Klonoa is swept away with the Seer to find the elements that hold the phantomile together. Each location presents a different mystery which Dream Travelers are the only ones capable of resolving.

While the mysteries behind each location are not difficult time an obstacles are not in their favor. Striving to keep the phantomile from falling to an ancient power Klonoa and his companion race against the clock.

WHAT THE HECK IS A KLONOA?

The Klonoa series comprises of 5 2.5D games,1 RPG and a VolleyBall Game? He also makes an apperance in the crossover JRPG Namco X Capcom

Starring you guessed it Klonoa.

Exactly what he is remains undefined throughout the games' 15-year history

According to word of god Klonoa is a cat with long floppy ears despite this the fandom insists on calling him a cabbit.

Klonoa is described as a "Dream Traveler", who is fated to travel to various places where the state of dreams is in danger without choice, but he himself isn't aware of that.

BOTTOM LINE

The Klonoa Fan Film is concept that aims to change the concept of fanworks. It's a Namco Bandai approved Fan Film after all.

Unlike Double Rainboom we will be sharing the story and assets in real time and allow you the fans to collaborate with us and give feedback,ideas,criticism etc.Also we will be using 100 percent open source software and formats to create the film. So hopefully this film will not be a disaster like that.We will also upload the film on github and all its assets on the Internet Archive as a zip so this film will not just mysteriously disappear.

And Unlike Veronica Mars we will have no DRM

The site will be completely open source,decentralized,self hosted and censorship proof.

So if you like Klonoa,like Creative Commons,Always wanted to be able collaborate and have your ideas used in a film project or Like Freedom or Open source then you will like this project.
